Krista,

Jim Reed contacted me since you identified yourself as writing an article, and I handle media relations for the BGCT. Members of the media always identify who they are working or writing for, and so your email raises questions. In essence, who are you?

I can say that the ID number you referenced in the earlier email is not ours, and we have no knowledge of the three entities -- Genesis, Mi Casa and AHF. Freedom Home Baptist Church is affiliated with the BGCT but has not contributed to the convention since 2000 and therefore is no longer covered under our 501(c)3 exemption. We cannot be certain as to how the BGCT continues to surface in your search.

I hope this is of some help. Have a super day!
